

Louisville Chapter of the American Sewing Guild presents:

Ordinary to Extraordinary

with Lyla Messinger

2009

Excellent Teacher of the Year
American Sewing Expo

Saturday, September 25

9:30—4:00

Indiana Wesleyan University
1500 Alliant Ave., Louisville, KY

Luncheon included

Lyla is an internationally recognized designer, speaker, author and teacher. She owns a multifaceted company as well as designing an entire line of zippers for the Riri Zipper Company of Switzerland. She is the author of the book Ordinary to Extraordinary: Terrific Treatments for Garment Sewing. Lyla has been featured in Threads, Sew News, Sew Beautiful and Australian Stitches magazines.

Come to her trunk show, seminar/lecture and see how she manipulates fabric into unique yardage. Lyla will teach you tips and tricks on sewing different fabrics, use of notions you probably have but never used, and innovative ways to assemble garment pieces. She has three pattern lines that are simple to construct and comfortable to wear for all ages, shapes and sizes. Get inspired to use her techniques in all types of your sewing.

Cost: Until July 25- $50 ASG member $ 55 non-member
After July 25- $60 ASG member $ 65 non-member

Registration ends
August 25th!

If you have questions, email Gail at sewnutty2@fewpb.net

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____

Email: (Confirmation will be sent by email): _____

ASG Member? _____ Membership # _____ NO REFUNDS AFTER AUGUST 25

Make checks payable to: Louisville Chapter ASG

Mail completed form and check to: Nancy Glisson, PO Box 266, Bloomfield, KY 40008

Vegetarian? _____ Special dietary needs? _____